CLEVELAND HAS NOT

No Mediation Yet Proposed to Spain in Behalf of Cuban Freedom.

Announcement of the Administration's Policy Cribbed from an Old Document.

Minister Taylor Was Not Advised of Any Action, and the Matter Is Still in Abeyance.

EXECUTIVE WILL PROCEED SLOWLY.

Signs That He Will Wart Till Congress Adjourns So as to Have Sole Credit for Settling the Problem.

By Julius Chambers. Washington, April 11.-The President is angry. He is going to do something in the Cuban matter, but in a different way from that suggested by the amateur diplomatists who have been guessing about the matter pox, fe during the past forty-eight hours.

The official denial of certain publications garding his pelicy that goes out to-night from the State Department is not calculated to after the opinion of anybody regarding the facts. What piaced the disedit mark upon these alleged announce-onts of the Administration's policy was a circumstance that the four declarations irein contained are could from redit mark upon these alleged announcethe circumstance that the four declarations therein contained are copied from the circum-Pish memorandum sent to Spain in ABSOLUTE DIVORCES in Oklahoma, 99 days regidence; legal everywhere; particulars free Address Mentz, 243 West 125th et. 1870. A careful gomparison shows this.

Therefore the description of the grant of the gra Therefore the official denial need not have been made . MR CTANGER AND STREET AND STREET

When President Cleveland does act there will not be any uncertainty as to his attitude. The situation is this:

First. President Cleveland is a waiting candidate for the Chicago nomination. His policy is to that the Cohan question in the Chicago nomination of the Chicago nomination of the Chicago nomination of the Chicago nomination. His practice in the Chicago nomination in the Chicago nomination in the Chicago nomination in the Chicago nomination. His practice in the Chicago nomination is the Chicago nomination in the Chicago nomination.

polley is to play the Cuban question just as he did the Venezucian problem.

Second.—When President Cleveland gets radio to declare himself with regard to the Cuban situation, he will do so in a manner so emphatic and discontinuous companies.

so emphatic and direct that even the Spaniards will easily comprehend it.

If the plans of the Republican leaders can be enforced, Cougress will adjourn in time to leave the President at liberty to utilize the Cuban question as an agency of political enthusiasm. He does not intend that the Republican Congress shall share with the Republican Congress shall share with the Administration the credit of accom- and 434. plishing anything for the struggling Cubans. There is no reasonable doubt of the President's purpose to insist that Spain 333 5th ave. shall release her grasping hand upon Cuba.

The cerrespondence will be conducted thart. 117 N. 13th st., Philadelphia, Pa.

with diplomatic skill and ability. No result diplomatic skill and ability. No result need be anticipated for the present. But later on, the American people may be elec-trified as they were on the Venezuelan controversy. The President is fully cognigant of the sentiment that dominates this country with regard to Cuba and he will ot place himself in antagonism to that

Washington, April 11.—The statement JOHN DREW'S FAREWELL, SATURDAY from Washington, published in a humber of newspapers this morning, purporting to give an outline of a dispatch alleged to have been sent by Secretary Olney to the United States Minister at Madrid, proposing mediation on the part of the United States in the Cuban Insurrection, has no states in the Cuban Insurrection, has no Special rom Washington, published in a number of s that no such dispatch was transmitted dinister Taylor adoubtedly the President and Secretary ey, if not the other members of the inet, have discussed the Cuban situation, with a view to determining what polithis Government should pursue with crence to it; but whatever negotiations, any, may have been initiated on the dject have not been put on paper in any pe.

FOR SECRET INFORMATION.

The President has for some time been accumulating information from official, semiofficial and private sources, to enable him to form a just conception of the actual con-lition of affairs in Cuba. From these much confidential information has been and is being received.
